Welcome to Al Mouj Golf

Following the natural lines of Muscat's pristine coastline, Al Mouj Golf at The Wave, Muscat is inspired by Oman and designed by Greg Norman.

Along a six-kilometre stretch of natural beach, flanking the Indian Ocean and at the foot of the stunning Hajar mountain range, lies a striking oasis of lush green grass, peppered with bunkers, water hazards and natural dunes.

In designing the course, Greg Norman has embraced the diversity of Oman's topography in every hole. At 7,342 yards long, the 18 hole Championship Course at Al Mouj Golf is Oman's first links style course offering amateurs and professionals a challenging, yet rewarding, game of golf.

Complementing the Championship Course are world-class facilities including a teaching academy, a floodlit par-3 nine-hole course, Academy retail shop, floodlit driving range and restaurant.

As one of the fastest growing tourist hubs in the Arabian Peninsula, Oman boasts of pristine beaches, picturesque mountains and endless blue skies. Wherever you look you are faced with a fusion of local heritage that combines the modern with the historical.

Al Mouj Golf adds to the Sultanates attractions and positions the country as a growing destination for worldwide golfers. Typical Omani hospitality is evident throughout and a warm welcome greets everyone who visits Al Mouj Golf.

Inspired by Oman. Designed by Greg Norman.

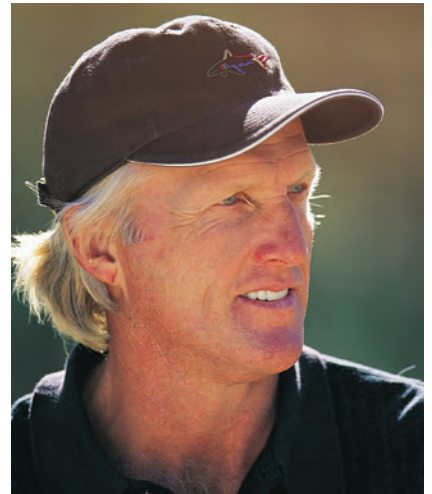

As a touring professional, Greg Norman was one of the most prolific and much loved players in the games history.

He was the number one ranked player for an incredible 331 consecutive weeks, won 91 professional trophies including 20 US PGA Tour events and two British Open titles (1986 and 1993). Norman's experience of playing the world's great golf courses over his 25-year career served as the catalyst to develop his own golf courses.

First established in 1987, Greg Norman Golf Course Design has completed more than 70 golf courses on six continents. Norman's golf courses have garnered numerous prestigious awards for design, with many of the projects being awarded the coveted Audubon Society Award for environmental stewardship.

His name is linked with some of the world's best courses such as Australia's Ellerston, America's Tiburon at the Ritz-Carlton, Bali's Nirwana and China's Mission Hills to name a few.

Almouj Golf is the latest addition to his portfolio. Norman believes that Oman's first PGA standard course is one of the best that he has been involved with anywhere in the world and anticipates that over the coming years Almouj Golf will gain global recognition.

"I believe that the true test of a golf course is that you should be able to remember every hole. Each one should have its own unique characteristics and the course should have as wide a variety of holes as possible. I think we have achieved this at Almouj Golf."
